

HOME ENERGY EFFICIENCY SCAVENGER HUNT

Hunt your home to see how you score on the energy efficiency scale.

Furnace

What fuel does it use? (elec, gas, LPG, other)

What age is it?

What size is it? (BTU or kwh)

Make & model*

Last time it was serviced?

Furnace model number can be found on or near the front inside door panel.

Gather the information and calculate your score on page 2.

Water Heater

What fuel type does it use?

What age is it?

How many gallons is it?

Appliances

Do you have a smart thermostat?

How many window air conditioners?

How many dehumidifiers do you have?

How many fridges do you have?

How many clothes washers do you have?

Air Conditioner or Heat Pump

What size is it? (Tons, if known)

What is the age?

Make/model?

What is the efficiency or SEER?

Date of last service?

*you will need to look outdoors on your condenser for this information

Lighting

How many LED screw-in bulbs in your home?

non-LED bulbs?

How many LED recessed can fixtures in your home?

Time to Update?

Check out www.energystar.gov for information on when you should update your lighting, appliances or HVAC system.

Home Energy Efficiency Score:

Add $250 if you have a central A/C or heat pump with SEER >15; $350 points if SEER >18.

Add $30 if your AC was serviced within the last two years.

Add $150 if you have a heat pump water heater.

Add $25 if you have a ENERGY STAR smart thermostat.

Add $25 if you have at least one ENERGY STAR window air conditioner.

Add $25 if you have at least one ENERGY STAR dehumidifier.

Add $25 if you have at least one ENERGY STAR fridge.

Add $25 if you have at least one ENERGY STAR clothes washer.

Add $4 for each LED recessed can fixture.

Add $1.50 for each LED screw-in bulb.

Total $:

The dollar amounts listed above represent rebates that we offer for energy-efficient equipment. If you have purchased qualifying equipment in 2020, you could be eligible for a rebate. For details and to download rebate application forms, visit www.brightenergysolutions.com.

